Congratulations on your Retirement!!

Jeff's last ET for the Postal Service

Jeff Haisten

Congratulations to Jeff Haisten on your retirement.

Jeff has been a Proud Postal Worker for the past 32 years and finally put down his rest bar for the final time on May 31, 2017.

Jeff held many positions within our local and has a lasting influence due to a Constitutional Amendment he submitted limiting the amount of expenditures for conventions and seminars that can be brought up at a General Membership Meeting without first placing it on the agenda. This one amendment has saved the local thousands of dollars.

At his retirement celebration he quoted Jeff Foxworthy and read:

It Might be Time to Retire When:

- 1. Your Boss looks like the same age as your Grandkid.*
- 2. You go to work with 3 sets of Glasses / ALL bifocals.*
- 3. Breakfast is a handful of pills.*
- 4. It takes both hands to move your time card thru the Transactor.*
- 5. By the time you get to the Break Room you're already late to your work location.*
- 6. AND LAST- It might be time to Retire when you spend your break time & Lunch Time changing your Depends.*

May you have a long and productive retirement!!!
